Opportunities	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Exchange with Kyoto Gaidai, Kwansei Gakuin University, Ryukoku University, Gumma Prefectural University for Women, and Kansai Gaidai 2. Friday Lunch-time Japanese conversation group. 3. Japan Day, a two hour cultural presentation by the students. The planning is done by the 3350 students as a part of course work. 	Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This year's enrollment for JPN3350 is an anomaly, being larger than the course cap. 2. JPN 1051/1052 are half-course version of JPN1050. Likewise, we have 2251/2252, 3351/3352, and 4451/4452 for those who cannot take a full language course. 3. Special Topic courses are 'self-directed' reading courses. 4. The "26 weeks" under "Classroom Hours" includes the Thanks Giving Monday. That is why JPN I, II, and IV are 102 hours, whereas JPN3350 is offered onTu-Th, so it has 104 hours.
